

Marriage Enrichment Series...

Presentations by Martin Gay, MS,
LPC, NCC

Queen of Peace Church
Gathering Area
Corner of Friendship and Lone Oak

7:00 – 8:30pm

April 3, 2017, Getting Back to the Basics - Love is a verb! Honoring our commitment! Home is where the heart is!

Who should attend? Couples or individuals, unmarried, engaged, married, or remarried any number of years; and individuals separated, or divorced; who would like to invest an evening in learning how to sustain and strengthen their relationships.

Registration: Couples or individuals can register online at www.martingay.com or by leaving a message (name and number) at 503-375-6362. There is no fee for this workshop series. Sorry, we cannot provide childcare.

Don't settle for a "good enough" marriage... make it an exceptional marriage!

Martin J. Gay, MS, LPC, NCC is a Licensed Professional Counselor specializing in marriage and family therapy, in private practice in Salem, Oregon since 1990. He has been a pastoral minister for over 31 years, serving and training in youth and young adult ministry, as well as marriage and family ministry. He has written articles for Family Works (Center for Ministry Development) and Today's Liturgy (Oregon Catholic Press). Martin is an experienced presenter on issues affecting couples, young adults, youth and families. Martin is married 33 years and has two grown daughters.